

Back to School?

Here's what you can do

Talk about it

- Share it on social media
- Talk about it with your friends, colleagues and neighbours
- Write about it in your workplace or community newsletter or in the local press

Understand it

- Find out how your local authority provides free school meals and help with uniform costs
- Ask friends, colleagues and neighbours about their experiences
- Discover who is responsible for taking decisions in your area

Act for change

- Contact your local authority and ask them to adopt best practice
- Let your councillor know
